

This guide will provide information about the details in the Staffing Competition Report.

Understanding the Staffing Competition Report

The Staffing Competition Report contains important information about candidates in a staffing competition. It displays the competition seniority, diversity status, probation, and assignment information for each candidate, if applicable.

Warning messages are provided to identify where you need to take additional action.

Front Page

The front page of the report lists information about the competition. The grouping and sorting of candidates is based on this information; therefore, if this information is incorrect, then candidate information will be incorrect.

This page may contain error messages about the Entity or Location not being found in MIDAS, or the Job/Grade/Employment Type being a mismatch.

Contact staffing@gov.sk.ca if corrections are required.

Grouping Candidates by Diversity Self-Declaration

Check the first page of the report to confirm the Grade/Job, Employment Type, and Diversity Statement. Candidates are grouped and sorted in the report according to these pieces of information.

Applicant Information

Each candidate appears in the report with a box around their information, for ease of use. On occasion, a candidate's information may start at the bottom of a page, and continue on the next page – the box around each candidate clarifies where a particular candidate's information starts and stops.

Within each box are several sections. The applicant information section confirms details about the candidate's application.

Seniority for SGEU Permanent Full-time competitions is service-wide.

Seniority for SGEU Permanent Part-time and Term>9 Month competitions is based on the seniority-unit (ministry/location) of the competition, in accordance with the Collective Bargaining Agreement. The Staffing Competition Report is programmed to show a seniority date only if the employee has seniority-unit seniority. To obtain seniority-unit seniority, the employee must have worked within the competition's seniority unit (ministry/location) for the equivalent of an initial probationary period (1 year), without a break in service.

Candidates with Tied Seniority Dates

If the candidates with tied seniority dates are not presented in alphabetical order: the tie has already been broken, and candidates are presented in the correct seniority order.

If the candidates with tied seniority dates are presented in alphabetical order: the tie may or may not have been broken, and a request to confirm should be submitted. To request confirmation if a tie has been broken or not, send an email as follows:

- TO: HRSC@gov.sk.ca
- SUBJECT: MIN(SHR) RUSH – seniority tie breaker for staffing competition in progress
- BODY: For staffing competition number __ competition # __, please advise seniority order of candidates with tied seniority dates:
 ____ candidate # 1 name ____,
 ____ candidate # 2 name ____

HRSC will respond with the correct seniority order for the candidates listed. Please note, this may take a few days, as the HRSC may need to submit a request to SGEU.

Seniority Messages

The report may contain a message in the Seniority field instead of a date:

- No Seniority: the candidate does not have competition seniority.
- No S.U. Seniority: the candidate does not have competition seniority in this seniority unit.
- Not Yet Acquired Seniority: the candidate is an employee but has not yet acquired competition seniority.
- Not Yet Acquired S.U. Seniority: the candidate is an employee but has not yet acquired seniority within seniority-unit.
- Recalc. Required Contact ESC: the candidate has a seniority date in MIDAS but a recalculation of the date is required. In most cases, the calculation request will be submitted by PSC on your behalf (you will be cc'd on the email request.) When you receive a seniority date from the HRSC, please apply the rules described above to determine if the employee is eligible to use the date, based on the competition's employment type.
- Date Missing Contact ESC: the employee may be eligible to use their seniority date, but the date needs to be calculated by the PSC HR Service Centre. In most cases, the calculation request will be submitted by PSC on your behalf (you will be cc'd on the email request.) When you receive a seniority date from the HRSC, please apply the rules described above to determine if the employee is eligible to use the date, based on the competition's employment type.
- Contact HRSC: the candidate may be eligible for a seniority date. In most cases, a seniority calculation request will be submitted by PSC on your behalf (you will be cc'd on the email request.) When you receive a seniority date from the HRSC, please apply the rules described above to determine if the employee is eligible to use the date, based on the competition's employment type.
- Contact HR: the candidate may have been on a Definite Leave. In most cases, a seniority calculation request will be submitted by PSC on your behalf (you will be cc'd on the email request.) When you receive a seniority date from the HRSC, please apply the rules described above to determine if the employee is eligible to use the date, based on the competition's employment type.
- Seniority Date Expired: the candidate has a seniority date but that date has expired and is no longer valid.
- Re Org Recently - please contact HRSC: due to a recent ministry re-organization, seniority-unit seniority is not straightforward for this candidate and must be calculated manually. In most cases, a seniority calculation request will be submitted by PSC on your behalf (you will be cc'd on the email request.) When you receive a seniority date from the HRSC, please apply the rules described above to determine if the employee is eligible to use the date, based on the competition's employment type.
- blank space: the candidate does not have a seniority date entered.

If you believe seniority information in the Staffing Competition Report is incorrect, please contact staffing@gov.sk.ca for further assistance.
